

3ABN Australia Newsletter – Spring 2024

Report from the Associate Director

Dear 3ABN Australia Family,

In August, John and I attended our 4th AgQuip at the Gunnedah Field Days. We had our booth to advertise 3ABN and gave out free books (Pillars of the Christian Faith, Steps to Christ, and The Great Controversy), INSIGHT Tracts, 3ABN Australia Share Cards, and other promotional material to help people find out more about God and 3ABN Australia. Every morning when we opened the booth, we would pray that God would lead us in giving out the 3ABN Australia “show bags” and tracts, and especially to lead us to those to whom He wanted us to give a copy of The Great Controversy. Here are a couple of stories of people I met.

On the Thursday afternoon, two teenage boys came past the booth, and I asked if they wanted a free 3ABN bag. They stopped and Teen A said he had one already, so Teen B took one too. Then Teen A saw The Great Controversy books on the table and said excitedly, “I got that book earlier and I’ve started to read it. It’s really good.” Then he said to his friend, “You need one too!” So, Teen B eagerly took a copy, and they said goodbye as they happily left the booth. I felt very encouraged by Teen A’s words about the book, and the way he encouraged his friend to get a copy, and to read it. I was really blessed.

While at the booth an older lady came past. She was well dressed and had her hair in a bun. I offered her a bag. She stopped and said no, she wasn’t interested. She looked briefly around and asked what we do. As I was talking, she looked at the books on table. Suddenly, she pointed to The Great Controversy and demanded, “What is that book about?” I gave her a summary of its contents, telling her that it had changed my life. I also told her it was free to people who were prepared to read the larger book, while the two free books in the give-away bag were smaller. She said in a serious and urgent tone, “I must have that book.” So I gave her one. Then she took the bag from my hand, put The Great Controversy in it, and thanked me before walking away. I was astounded that she had not wanted the free bag, but after seeing the other book, she took both the larger book and the free bag she hadn’t wanted. Amazing! I saw the Holy Spirit at work.

Some people asked which denomination we belong to. When we told them we were Seventh-day Adventists, not one person was antagonistic. On the contrary, they were pleasant and happy to accept things from us. This pleasantly surprised me and showed that all of them must have had good relations with other SDAs. How we represent God and our faith in Him is important, as it might make the difference between someone accepting or rejecting further truth in the future. So let’s be careful how we represent God to everyone we meet.
